

Important information for Rain wash coating

The "rain wash coating" is the special material on the lens cover of the camera. This coating covers the light transmissive area (Area-A) but does NOT affect the image quality.

Meanwhile, residue of the coating gathers and remains around the surrounding area of Lens cover (Area-B) due to its construction method, but it does NOT affect the image quality too.